The image shows a close-up of the rear center console panel, which is part of a vehicle's interior. The panel is black with a textured, leather-like finish and is framed by a chrome trim. At the top, there are two rectangular air vents with horizontal slats and adjustable flaps. Below the vents, there are two square buttons for heated seats, each featuring a hand icon and two red indicator lights. At the bottom of the panel, there are two USB ports, each labeled "USB" in white text.
