A6

A close-up photograph of the rear quarter panel of a dark-colored car. The surface is highly reflective, showing a clear reflection of palm trees and a building. A prominent chrome badge with the letters 'A6' is mounted on the panel. Above the badge is a portion of a red taillight. To the right, a black plastic trim piece with a white logo is partially visible. A large, semi-transparent watermark is overlaid across the center of the image.
